

AviComp Controls GmbH is a medium-sized engineering company from Leipzig with further locations in Europe and Asia. Thanks to the experience gained from more than 1,500 completed projects in various industries and due to extensive certifications, the company is one of the leading providers for control and automation technology as well as in the field of digitization.

To strengthen our team and to address our diverse tasks we are seeking you as

Field Service Engineer (m/f/d)

The tasks include in particular:

- Implementation of commissioning
- Responsibility for installation of all equipment needed on site
- Technical contact and coordination
- Performance of engineering tasks in the fields of measurement, control technology and PLC programming
- Failure analysis of the cabinets on site
- Reporting and documentation
- Implementation of training courses for staff on site

Our requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in electrical engineering or equivalent education, preferably in the fields of process engineering, automation, mechanical engineering
- Software knowledge in PCS7, Step7 WinCC
- Good analytical and structured way of working
- Team spirit, diplomatic skills and self-confidence

We offer:

- an interesting area of responsibility
- an international team and strong team spirit
- wide range of training courses and a very good induction plan
- flexible working hours and home office
- height-adjustable work station
- JobTicket with a subsidy of EUR 50.00 per month or a fuel card
- company pension scheme with an AG share of 120% or 127,00 EUR
- JobRad
- corporate sports and corporate events

Interested in joining our team? We are looking forward to receiving your complete application.

Uta Kersten

email: hrm@avicomp.com

We are looking forward to meet you.